

AN ORDINANCE SETTING THE AD VALOREM TAX AMOUNT AND THE AMOUNT OF INCREASE FOR THE BUDGET YEAR 2023

WHEREAS, the Olympia City Council held a public hearing on November 1, 2022, to consider the City of Olympia ad valorem tax levy for 2023 collections; and

WHEREAS, the City Council, after the hearing and after duly considering all relevant evidence and testimony presented, has determined that the City of Olympia requires an increase in property tax revenue of $86,229.84 from the previous year, which excludes any increase resulting from additions of new construction and improvements to property, any increase in the value of state-assessed property, and amounts authorized by law as a result of any annexations that have occurred and refunds made, in order to discharge the expected expenses and obligations of the City in its best interest; and

WHEREAS, the City issued bonds to pay for a Fire Station, Fire Training Facility, and Equipment, such bonds approved by voters in 2008; and

WHEREAS, although the City may wish to levy taxes for the year in an amount less than the maximum allowed under its legal levy limit, future levy capacity shall be protected as provided for in RCW 84.55.092, calculated in future years as though the maximum lawful levy amount allowed by the levy limit had been levied, as set forth in WAC 458-19-065; and

WHEREAS, the City is required to certify the amount to be raised by taxation on assessed valuation with the clerk of the county legislative authority by November 30, 2022;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE OLYMPIA CITY COUNCIL, ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. A levy is authorized to be collected in 2023, with an increase in the City's highest lawful levy of the statutory 1% for collections in 2023, resulting in a dollar amount increase of $86,229.84 or 0.43312690% in the regular property tax levy from the previous year. This is exclusive of additional revenue resulting from new construction, improvements to property, any increase in the value of state assessed property, and any annexations that have occurred and refunds made. This levy will be used for the purpose of paying the general expenses of the City of Olympia municipal government and is calculated:
