

Potential Incentives, Design Alternatives, and Trade-Offs With Residential Fire Sprinklers

For the Developer, Builder, and Owner:

- Reduced Fire Flow
- Increase in Hydrant Spacing
- Street Width Reduction
- Increased Density
- Fire Impact Fee Eliminated
- Reduced Fire Resistance Ratings
- Lower Insurance Premiums
- Life Safety and Property Protection

For the City of Olympia:

- Reduction in on-scene staff needed for fire incidents
- Reduction in duration of fire incidents
- More staff available for simultaneous calls
- Reduced Water Usage
- Reduced Waste to Landfill
- Life Safety for Firefighters