

Project Narrative

The planned project represents a subdivision of 10.28 acres into the maximum allowed density, estimated at 64 units.

The units may be comprised of a mix of attached and detached single family homes depending on the unit yield and product type desire.