

Ordinance No. 7391

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON, AMENDING OLYMPIA MUNICIPAL CODE CHAPTER 5.82 RELATING TO RENTAL HOUSING CODE

WHEREAS, housing affordability and homelessness are a growing problem, and the City Council of the City of Olympia has declared that homelessness is a public health emergency; and

WHEREAS, the majority of Olympia residents are renters; and

WHEREAS, Olympia’s Housing Action Plan finds that “people of color are more likely to rent and more likely to have lower incomes than their white, non-Hispanic counterparts. This makes them particularly vulnerable to eviction when rent increases exceed their ability to pay. This concern is reflected in the population experiencing homelessness, which is also disproportionately people of color”; and

WHEREAS, Black, Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC) are more likely to rent than white residents in Thurston County. 42 percent of BIPOC residents are renters, compared to 31 percent of white residents; and

WHEREAS, over 6,000 renting households (52 percent of renting households) are cost-burdened in Olympia, which means they spend over 30 percent of their income on housing costs; and

WHEREAS, renters disproportionately bear the burden of low incomes and high housing costs. Almost 27 percent of Olympia renting households are severely cost-burdened (spending over half of their income on housing costs) compared to seven percent of Olympia homeownership households; and

WHEREAS, low-income households bear the brunt of high housing costs; of those households making 30 percent or less of the median income in Olympia, 82 percent are housing cost-burdened (of those, 73 percent are severely cost-burdened); and

WHEREAS, average rents in Olympia have increased significantly while vacancies in rental housing are low, making it increasingly difficult for tenants, especially people with limited finances, to obtain rental housing; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds that adoption of the proposed tenant protections aligns with its Housing Action Plan, Strategy 2 (“Make it easier for households to access housing and stay housed.”) Tenant protections are specifically outlined in Strategy 2a (“Identify and implement appropriate tenant protections that improve household stability”) and Strategy 2c (“Provide displaced tenants with relocation assistance”); and

WHEREAS, forced relocation is not merely expensive but puts renters under economic stress that increases their risk of becoming homeless; and

WHEREAS, rent increases may cause a tenant to move due to inability to pay the increased rent; and

WHEREAS, Olympia City Council passed an ordinance on August 16, 2022 that requires advanced notice of rent increases over five percent and 10 percent; and

WHEREAS, the advanced notice of rent increases was intended to provide tenants additional time to locate alternative housing. Olympia City Council desires to make it easier to release tenants from their lease and rental obligations if they do find alternative housing arrangements; and

WHEREAS, Olympia City Council passed an ordinance on November 21, 2023 that requires rental properties to undergo periodic health and safety inspections that may lead to properties being condemned, demolished, or substantially rehabilitated; and

WHEREAS, Washington state law requires a landlord to pay a tenant relocation assistance if the rental unit or property is condemned and the City wishes to ensure tenants are paid the relocation assistance owed in a timely manner; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the public hearing held on March 19, 2024, the City Council finds that costs incurred by tenants to relocate include actual physical moving costs, application fees, utility fees, security deposits, and anticipated additional rent costs, which, on average, equal or exceed $2,000 per tenant household; and

WHEREAS, the State of Washington has adopted legislation authorizing local jurisdictions to require the payment of relocation assistance to low-income tenants who are displaced from dwelling units by housing demolition, change of use, or substantial rehabilitation; and

WHEREAS, the development and real estate market in Olympia has not been able to replace low-income units lost due to demolition, change of use, and substantial rehabilitation, making it more difficult and more costly for low-income persons who are displaced by demolition, change of use, or substantial rehabilitation to locate affordable substitute rental housing; and

WHEREAS, these conditions in the rental market have created a barrier to relocation, because tenants, especially people with limited finances, may be unable to save money to pay move-in fees and application fees; and

WHEREAS, tenants are routinely subject to additional fees and charges over and above the cost of application fees, move-in fees, rent, and utility costs. These fees include mandatory charges for non-essential services (e.g., garbage valet fees), late fees, fees to post legal notices, administrative fees, and other charges that are unrelated to rental of a dwelling unit; and

WHEREAS, on February 2, 2021, Olympia City Council declared a Climate Emergency; and

WHEREAS, the direct and indirect impacts of climate change will disproportionately affect the region's communities least able to prepare for, cope with, and recover from them, such as communities of color, low-wage workers, immigrants, and other low-income communities; and

WHEREAS, City staff and elected officials have learned that some landlords prohibit tenants from installing cooling devices in their rental units; and

WHEREAS, heat-related illness and health impacts due to climate change is a public health issue; and

WHEREAS, the City Council desires to amend Chapter 5.82 OMC to adopt the proposed tenant protections, and finds that this ordinance will protect and promote the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of Olympia;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE OLYMPIA CITY COUNCIL ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Amendment of OMC 5.82. Olympia Municipal Code Chapter 5.82, Rental Housing Code, is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.82.010 Purpose and Intent

The purpose of this Chapter is to establish regulations supporting housing security to reduce homelessness and to establish standards and enforcement mechanisms as they relate to rental housing within the municipal boundaries of the City of Olympia. It is the intent of the Olympia City Council to continue its long-term commitment to maintain healthy, vibrant, and diverse neighborhoods within the City of Olympia. The regulations contained in this Chapter balance the needs of the landlord, tenant, and the City of Olympia to ensure safe, healthy, and thriving rental housing within the City’s municipal boundaries. The City recognizes that the renting of residential property is a commercial venture where owners and landlords must evaluate risk, profit, and loss. Providing housing for Olympia's residents directly impacts quality of life at the most basic level, and therefore requires regulations to ensure that this commercial venture is equitably undertaken. This Chapter ensures housing security for current and future residents within the City of Olympia.

5.82.0340 Rent Increase Notification; Tenant's Right to Terminate Tenancy

- A. A landlord may not increase a tenant's rent by more than five percent of the rent unless the landlord has provided the tenant with notice of the rent increase at least 120 days before such increase takes effect.
- B. A landlord may not increase the rent of a tenant by 10 percent or more of the rent unless the landlord has provided the tenant with notice of the rent increase at least 180 days before such increase takes effect.
- C. Pursuant to RCW 59.18.140, if the rental agreement governs a subsidized tenancy where the amount of rent is based on the income of the tenant or circumstances specific to the subsidized household, a landlord shall provide a minimum of 30 days' prior written notice of an increase in the amount of rent to each affected tenant.
- D. Any notice of a rent increase required by this section must be served in accordance with RCW 59.12.040. Notice of any rental increase of five percent or less may be served in accordance with RCW 59.12.040.
- E. If a landlord gives notice of intent to increase the amount of rent by more than five percent, the tenant may terminate the tenancy at any point prior to the effective date of the increase by providing at least 30 days' written notice and should the tenant so terminate the tenancy, the tenant only owes prorated rent through the date when the tenant vacates the rental unit. A landlord may not charge a tenant any fines or fees for terminating a rental agreement under this subsection.
- F. Any notice of rent increase required by this section must state, in clear language, that because the landlord seeks to increase the rent paid by the tenant by more than five percent, the tenant may terminate the tenancy at any point prior to the effective date of the increase by providing at least 30 days' written notice and, should the tenant so terminate the tenancy, the tenant only owes prorated rent through the date when the tenant vacates the rental unit.
- G. The increase notice required by OMC 5.82.030(A) and (B) must specify:
 - 1. The amount of the increase;
 - 2. The total amount of the new rent;
 - 3. The date the increase becomes effective;
 - 4. The rationale for the rent increase; and

5. The rights of tenants under the Economic Displacement Relocation Assistance program under OMC 5.82.040, including:

a. A statement of the right of the tenant to request economic displacement relocation assistance in writing within 45 days of receipt of an increase notice.

If the rent increase, together with any other rent increase in the preceding 12 months, totals seven percent or more, and that should a tenant so request, the landlord must, within 31 calendar days of receiving a request from the tenant, pay the tenant relocation assistance equivalent to two and half times the tenant's monthly rent (i.e. two and half months' rent).

b. A statement that if the tenant receives timely relocation assistance as provided for under OMC 5.82.040, the tenant may relocate at any time during the remainder of the tenancy prior to the effective date of the rent increase, if the tenant provides at least 30 days' written notice and pay prorated rent until they vacate the unit.

c. A statement that if the tenant remains in the rental unit until the effective date of the rent increase, the tenant is obligated to pay the increased rent in accordance with the increase notice for the duration of the tenant's occupancy of the rental unit and to repay any relocation assistance provided to the tenant.

5.82.040 Economic Displacement Relocation Assistance

A. If, within 45 calendar days after a tenant receives a notice indicating a rent increase and if that rent increase, together with any other rent increase in the preceding 12 months, totals seven percent or more, the tenant may request, in writing, that the landlord provide relocation assistance.

If requested by the tenant, within 31 calendar days of receiving the request for relocation assistance, the landlord shall pay to the tenant relocation assistance equivalent to two and half times the tenant's monthly rent (i.e. two and half months' rent).

B. The requirements of this section apply per rental unit, not per individual tenant.

C. Return of Relocation Assistance.

1. If the tenant receives timely relocation assistance as provided for under this chapter, the tenant may relocate at any time during the remainder of the tenancy prior to the effective date of the rent increase, if they provide at least 30 days' written notice and pay any rent owing until they vacate the unit. When a tenant vacates a rental unit under this section, the tenant owes rent prorated to the date the tenant vacates the unit.

2. At the conclusion of this relocation period, if the tenant remains in the rental unit until the effective date of the rent increase, the tenant is obligated to pay the increased rent in accordance with the increase notice for the duration of the tenant's occupancy of the rental unit and to repay any relocation assistance provided to the tenant.

D. Notice to the City.

A Landlord shall provide notice to the City of Olympia of:

1. Any request for relocation assistance, within 30 days of receipt of such notice; and

2. Any payment of relocation assistance within 30 days of making such payment.

E. Exceptions.

1. The Economic Displacement Relocation Assistance provisions do not apply to any of the following:

- a. A landlord and tenant living on the same site if the site has only one rental unit;
- b. A landlord and tenant living together in the same single-family dwelling where the tenant shares the dwelling with the owner;
- c. Tenants who have lived in the rental unit for less than six months;
- d. Living arrangements exempted under RCW 59.18.040;
- e. Transient dwelling, as defined in OMC 18.02.180, which includes a short-term rental;
- f. An assisted living dwelling defined in OMC 18.02.180.
- g. A shelter, as defined in OMC 5.82.020(u).
- e-h. A rental agreement which governs a subsidized tenancy where the amount of rent is based on the income of the tenant or circumstances specific to the subsidized household. This exception for subsidized housing does not include tenancies regulated under Section 8 of the Housing Act of 1937, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437 f, commonly known as the choice voucher program.

5.82.050 Pet Damage Deposits

- A. Except as provided in subsection B of this section, a landlord may require payment of a pet damage deposit that may not exceed 25 percent of one month's rent, regardless of the time when the pet damage deposit is paid.
- B. Exceptions
 - 1. A landlord may not require a pet damage deposit for an animal that serves as an assistance animal for the tenant. This prohibition does not prohibit a landlord from bringing an action for damages resulting from damage to the landlord's property caused by the tenant's assistance animal. For purposes of this subsection, "assistance animal" means an animal that works, provides assistance, or performs tasks for the benefit of a person with a disability, or that provides emotional support that alleviates one or more identified effects of a person's disability.
 - 2. A landlord may not charge a pet damage deposit in that type of subsidized housing where the amount of rent is set based on the income of the tenant. This exception for subsidized housing does not include tenancies regulated under Section 8 of the Housing Act of 1937, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437 f, commonly known as the choice voucher program.
- C. If the tenant's pet's occupancy begins at the beginning of tenancy, the amount of the pet damage deposit must be specified in a rental agreement. If the tenant's pet's occupancy begins after the beginning of the tenancy, the amount of the pet damage deposit must be specified in an addendum to the rental agreement. The tenant may elect to pay the pet damage deposit in three consecutive, equal monthly installments that begin when the tenant's pet first occupies the rental unit or the tenant may propose an alternative installment schedule. If the landlord agrees to the tenant's alternative installment schedule the schedule must be described in the rental agreement.
- D. A landlord may not keep any portion of the pet damage deposit for damage that was not caused by a pet for which the tenant is responsible. Not later than 30 days from the end of the tenancy, consistent with RCW 59.18.280(1)(a), the landlord shall return to the tenant any portion of the pet damage deposit not applied to the costs of remediating damage caused by a pet for which the tenant is responsible, or the landlord shall provide to the tenant an itemized list of damages if a portion or the entirety of the deposit is retained for damage caused by a pet for which the tenant is responsible.

- E. Other than the pet damage deposit authorized by subsection A of this section, a landlord may not charge the tenant any fee for keeping a pet.

5.82.060 Limits to Move-in Fees

~~A refundable security deposit or last month's rent may be charged by a landlord before a tenant takes possession of a rental unit. Landlords are prohibited from charging tenants any other non-refundable fees or one-time fees at the beginning of the tenancy, including a fee to hold a rental unit prior to the tenant taking possession. The amount of the refundable security deposit or last month's rent may not exceed one month's rent, except in that type of subsidized housing where the amount of rent is set based on the income of the tenant. The exception for subsidized housing does not include tenancies regulated under Section 8 of the Housing Act of 1937, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437 f, commonly known as the choice voucher program. A landlord is prohibited from charging or accepting any move-in fee in excess of that allowed in this section. Nothing in this section prohibits a landlord from charging a pet damage deposit, as allowed in OMC 5.82.050.~~

- A. A landlord may not charge a tenant excessive fees, fees for anticipated landlord expenses, and may not require the payment of any fee except as provided in this section. A fee must be described in a written rental agreement. All required rent, fees, and charges must be identified in writing to a tenant prior to application. A landlord may require only the following types of fees:
1. Applicant screening charges, pursuant to RCW 59.18.257;
 2. A refundable security deposit or last month's rent to secure possession of a rental unit, which may not exceed one month's rent, except in that type of subsidized housing where the amount of rent is set based on the income of the tenant. The exception for subsidized housing does not include tenancies regulated under Section 8 of the Housing Act of 1937, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437 f, commonly known as the choice voucher program;
 3. Refundable pet damage deposits, pursuant to OMC 5.82.050;
 4. Utilities or utility-related charges, provided that the landlord provides a clear accounting or methodology for utility charges if not based on tenant usage;
 5. Late charges or fees for late payment of rent (not to exceed $10.00 per month); and
 6. Fees to reimburse a landlord expense, which must be substantiated by the landlord pursuant to the requirements in RCW 59.18.280, including:
 - a. Repair of damages to the rental unit or rental property or replacement of fixtures in the rental unit, as allowable under RCW 59.18.180(1) and RCW 59.18.280;
 - b. Improvements, amenities, or other services that are requested by the tenant and that are not required of the landlord by the rental agreement or by RCW 59.18.060;
 - c. Dishonored checks.
 - d. Costs to re-rent a rental unit as allowable under RCW 59.18.310 after a tenant abandons the unit and as authorized by OMC 5.82.030(E).
- B. Nothing prohibits a landlord from offering one or more nonessential services, but a tenant must be allowed to opt out of such service(s) and any associated fee(s), if the tenant chooses to not participate. For the purposes of this subsection, "nonessential services" means a third-party service offered by the landlord to the tenant at the tenant's cost where a viable alternative is available, but does not include a duty required to be provided by a landlord pursuant to RCW 59.18.060 or utilities that are required by the lease agreement to be paid by the tenant.

A-C. A landlord is permitted to pursue arbitration fees, reasonable attorneys' fees, and court costs, as authorized by RCW 59.18 and RCW 59.12.

5.82.070 Registration of Rental Units

- A. Registration required for rental units.
1. Any person who makes available for rent, or rents, any rental unit not exempt under subsection B of this section shall, prior to making such unit available for rent or renting such unit, register the rental unit with the City, and shall maintain the registration throughout the term of the rental of such unit.
 2. A residential rental housing registration is good for one calendar year and expires on December 31st of the calendar year of registration or renewal.

 - ~~6-7.~~ An assisted living dwelling defined in OMC 18.02.180-, with the exception of Permanent Supportive Housing.
- C. Application. A landlord registering a rental unit or units pursuant to this section shall follow the process and shall utilize the form established by the City. - D. Renewal. A landlord shall renew a residential rental registration for the ensuing year on or before the date of the expiration of the current registration by submitting a renewal application on a form and through a process established by the City, updating the information contained in the original application as necessary, and paying the required annual registration fee.
- E. Landlord shall provide and update mailing address. Each landlord registering a rental unit or units under this section or renewing a registration shall provide the City with a mailing address and shall notify the City of any change in the landlord's mailing address. Any notice required to be provided to a landlord or rental property owner by the City that the City mails to the address provided through the registration or renewal process must be deemed received three days after mailing.

- F. Provision and posting of tenants' rights and program information. Each landlord shall, at the time a new lease with a tenant is executed, or a lease with a tenant is renewed, provide the tenant a copy of the current version of a tenant rights information document prepared by the City, which document must inform tenants of tenants' rights under this Chapter and identify and provide contact information for City staff that a tenant may contact should a tenant believe the tenant's rights under this Chapter have been violated. In addition, At at each rental unit registered under this section, or in a common area of the rental property, the landlord shall post information regarding the City's rental housing and safety inspection program; provided, that the City may establish one or more alternative or additional methods for conveying the information to tenants. Upon request by a landlord, the City shall provide a form with the information required in this subsection.
- G. Fees Established. A landlord of a rental unit subject to the registration requirements under this section shall pay an annual registration fee of $35 per rental housing unit. An affordable housing provider may request an exemption from registration fees and the City may grant such a request at its discretion.
- H. Penalty. Any person who fails to properly register any rental unit or fails to submit the required documentation for renewal of such registration on or prior to the expiration date of the registration is in violation of this chapter and is subject to the penalty provisions of OMC 5.82.130.

Unless exempt under subsection B below, each and every person making available for rent or renting one or more rental units within the City limits shall, in accordance with Chapter 5.02 OMC, obtain and maintain a business license. One business license covers all of a person's rental units within the City; however a separate business license is required for any other business operated by such person, in accordance with OMC 5.02.005.
- B. Exemptions. A landlord is exempt from the requirement to obtain a business license under this section if the landlord rents only the following types of rental units:
 - 1. A single rental unit located on the same property as an owner-occupied residence;
 - 2. Rental units exempt from the residential rental housing registration requirements under OMC 5.82.070(B). The operation of dwelling or lodging types that do not fall under this Chapter, such as hotels, motels, short-term rentals, shelters, transitional housing, and housing accommodations at an institution, may require an Olympia business license under a different Olympia Municipal Code provision.
- C. Certificate of compliance. As a condition of the issuance or renewal of a business license, a landlord shall, prior to the renewal of the business license, possess a certificate of compliance issued by the City, certifying that each rental unit made available for rent or rented by the landlord has been inspected as required by OMC 5.82.090.

In lieu of a certificate of inspection provided by a qualified rental housing inspector following an inspection under this section, the City may accept an alternate inspection report from an affordable housing provider that is required to complete a periodic inspection if the report reflects that inspection performed was substantially equivalent to the City's inspection standards. This includes an inspection report for a privately owned rental housing property rented to a voucher recipient if the rental property has passed inspection by Housing Authority of Thurston County.

Such notice must comply with RCW 59.18.125(7)(a) and must state that a tenant with a disability who may be negatively affected by entry into their rental unit by the inspector may request a reasonable accommodation by the City, including the City selecting an alternate unit for inspection.

The City shall determine the methodology for selecting which units within a rental property are subject to inspection under subsections D(2) and (3), below, and for each rental property subject to a periodic inspection, shall select units for inspection using such methodology and inform the rental property owner and the inspector of the rental units selected for inspection.

The inspection must be conducted at the rental property owner's expense, except as provided in subsection 7, below.
 2. Not more than 60 nor fewer than 30 days prior to the date set for the inspection, the rental property owner shall provide notice to each tenant of the rental property of the impending inspection, using the form created by the City, completed by the rental property owner with all required information. The rental property owner shall provide a copy of the notice to the inspector upon request on the day of inspection.
 3. The qualified rental housing inspector shall conduct an in-person inspection of the rental unit or units selected by the City for inspection.  5. In conducting an inspection under this section, the inspector shall utilize the checklist developed by the City, inspecting the unit or units subject to inspection to determine if the unit meets or fails to meet each element listed on the checklist. If any rental unit fails to meet any element of the checklist, the rental property fails the inspection and a certificate of inspection for the rental property may not be issued.
 6. Unless the rental property fails the inspection, the inspector shall, within 10 days of conducting an inspection of a rental property, issue a certificate of inspection on the form developed by the City and shall provide a copy of the certificate of inspection to the City and to the rental property owner.
 7. If the rental property fails the inspection, the inspector shall, within 10 days of the inspection, provide the rental property owner and the City a notice of inspection failure. A rental property owner may appeal a failed inspection under subsection F, below.

- B. Notice. At the time the City notifies a landlord that a rental unit owned or managed by the landlord has been condemned or determined to be unlawful to occupy due to the existence of conditions that violate applicable codes, statutes, ordinances, or regulations, the City will also notify both the landlord and the tenant(s) that the tenant(s) may be entitled to relocation assistance from the landlord under this section and RCW 59.18.085.
- C. Advancement of relocation assistance by the City. If the City determines that a tenant(s) is entitled to relocation assistance under this section and RCW 59.18.085, and the landlord has failed to provide the tenant(s) with relocation assistance within seven days of the City notifying the landlord of the condemnation or determination of unlawful to occupy, the City may advance the cost of relocation assistance to the tenant(s). In addition, if the City has advanced relocation assistance to a tenant entitled to such assistance under this section or RCW 59.18.085, and if the landlord fails to reimburse the City as required by this section, interest on such amount accrues at the maximum legal rate of interest permitted under RCW 19.52.020, commencing 30 days after the date the City first advanced relocation assistance funds to the displaced tenant(s). The City is also entitled to attorney's fees and costs arising from any legal action taken to recover unpaid relocation assistance, penalties, and interest.
- G. Exemptions. A landlord is exempt from payment or reimbursement to the City of relocation assistance if the landlord demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence within seven days of the City sending notice of the condemnation or determination of unlawful to occupy that the condition(s) causing the dwelling to be condemned or unlawful to occupy was directly caused by:

For purposes of this section, "low income" means total combined income per rental unit is at or below 50 percent of the median income, adjusted for family size, in Thurston County, Washington.

C. Notice to Tenants. When a tenant is to be displaced due to demolition, substantial rehabilitation, or change of use of the rental property or their rental unit, a landlord may only terminate the tenancy by providing a tenant with written notice at least 120 days before the end of the month or period of tenancy. E. Tenant eligibility for relocation assistance. Low-income tenants who are parties to a rental agreement for the rental unit are eligible for relocation assistance, but only if the tenant to be displaced resides in a rental unit at issue when the landlord delivers the notice required by subsection C, above and only if the tenant completes and provides to the City the tenant income verification form and is determined by the City to meet income eligibility requirements.
