Dalquest/Gallagher House

1921

Craftsman bungalow built for John O.

Dalquest, President of Capital City

Creamery. Another notable inhabitant, Phil H.

Gallagher, lived in the house from late 1930s to late 1940s. Gallagher was the youngest state treasurer

in U.S. history at age 30 (1936), and state representative for the 33rd district (1956).
