

DIGNITY IN LABOR SCULPTURE DONATION PROPOSAL

1. The Thurston-Lewis-Mason County Central Labor Council would like to donate the “Dignity in Labor” sculpture, which was featured in the city’s Percival Plinth Project, back to the City of Olympia to highlight to the rich labor history and culture in our great city.

2. “Dignity in Labor”

Source: The Olympian, <http://www.theolympian.com/news/local/article25223056.html>

- 3 The TLMC CLC will assist with instillation costs but would like the city to install the sculpture.
4.
 - Proposed location: On the side walk by the Olympia “Labor Temple” near 119 Capitol Way N, Olympia, WA 98501 (The TLMC CLC is open to other suggested highly visible locations).
 - Donor restrictions/requests: We would like to add a plaque that states the sculpture was donated by the Thurston-Lewis-Mason County Central Labor Council.
 - Budget: The TLMC CLC will pay for a pedestal for the piece and would like to help support the city’s efforts for instillation.
5. The art piece is estimated at $700.
6. The piece was created by local artist John Vanek as an entry into the City of Olympia’s Percival Plinth Project.