

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, for 30 years radio station KXXO-FM, locally owned by Toni Holm and David Rauh and housed in historical Rockway-Leland Building in downtown Olympia, has been serving the Olympia area; and

WHEREAS, since January 1990, KXXO, also known as Mixx-96, has been a staple of the Olympia media scene and a place on the dial where Olympia area listeners are treated to community-focused family radio; and

WHEREAS, KXXO regularly sponsors two major on-air fund drives to support the Little Red Schoolhouse Project efforts to provide school supplies and the Holiday Connections Program to help children and families over the holidays; and

WHEREAS, over the years, KXXO has employed hundreds of Olympians, helping to support the local economy; and

WHEREAS, we celebrate KXXO's 30 years of being a cornerstone of the Olympia Community; and

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Olympia City Council do hereby proclaim January 16, 2020 as

KXXO RADIO

In the City of Olympia, wishing them a Happy 30th Birthday, and many more years of success in our community.

SIGNED IN THE CITY OF OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON THIS 14th DAY OF JANUARY 2020.
