						LR The uniquely situated house overlooking the Olympia Brewery and Deschutes River was built in 1921 by the Muench family in a design by Edwin Ivey. The English Revival Style home was called "Lo Ma Villa" and had extensive landscaping and a waterfall on the steep bank. Alice Muench, daughter of the family, taught dance and music. Mrs. Peter Schmidt was another daughter of the family.
2622 S. Capitol Way	1951	Non-Contributing	Ranch	43304000700
						Located on a large wooded lot and approached by a long driveway, the Muench House is an L-shaped one-and-one-half-story wood frame structure built in Colonial Revival style on a poured concrete foundation. Its hipped gable roof is covered with composition shingles, and broken on the front (north) facade by a brick chimney flanked by shed-roofed dormers. Walls are clad with wood shingles. At the corner of the "L" on the front facade is a small flat-roofed porch with paired columns, which shelters the main entry door. At the east end of the facade, a covered breezeway with columned arches connects the house to the detached garage. Fenestration includes double-hung sash with eight-over-one lights and multi-paned casements, and french doors lead to a deck along the west wall. At the rear is a new second-story deck. The house is maintained in excellent condition.
