- Evening Reception with Legislators
  Please join host the Honorable Ralph Munro, the Washington State arts and heritage community, Legislators and Elected Officials to an evening reception at the historic Lord Mansion, sponsored by the Washington Museum Association. RSVP here.

  5:00 to 7:00 PM
  Lord Mansion, 211 21st Avenue SW, Olympia 98501. Four blocks south of the Capitol Campus. State Capital Museum directions and parking

- Washington State Arts Commission (ArtsWA) Meet and Greet 7:30pm Board members will hold an informal meet and greet with the public (location TBA). Arts & Heritage constituents are invited to meet and mingle with ArtsWA Board members. No host food & bar.

Wednesday, February 6, 2019

Arts and Heritage Day begins at Heritage Caucus on Wednesday, February 6, 2019, 7:00 a.m.

- Heritage Caucus 7:00 to 8:00 a.m. Cherborg Rooms A-B-C
  Arts and Heritage Day is front and center at the early morning meeting of Heritage Caucus. Freya Liggett, President of the Washington Museum Association and Manager of the Moses Lake Museum and Art Center will speak on the economic and cultural importance of museums and cultural organizations in Washington State, their impact on education and community life, and the critical support museum-friendly legislation plays in the life of our heritage and art institutions.Manny Cawaling, Executive Director of Cultural Access Washington will speak on behalf of the Arts community in Washington State.
- Check-In Table 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Washington Room (downstairs in the Pritchard Building)
- Orientation / Legislative Briefings 8:30 and 9:30 a.m. Information review for meetings with legislators
- Senate Invocation Around 9:30am. All are invite to watch from the Senate Gallery.
- ArtsWA & Humanities Washington Office Hour 10 –11 a.m. Staff will answer questions about project support grants, Arts in Education grants and programs, Art in Public Places, Speaker Bureau opportunities, etc.
- Meetings with Legislators (all day as scheduled TBA)