Title

Olympia Police Department Use of Force and Crowd Control Policies and Training Discussion

Recommended Action

Committee Recommendation:

Not referred to a committee.

City Manager Recommendation:

Receive an overview of and discuss Olympia Police Department's (OPD) Use of Force and Crowd Control policies and training.

Report

Issue:

Whether to receive an overview of and discuss OPD's Use of Force and Crowd Control policies and training.

Staff Contact:

Aaron Jelcick, Police Chief, 360.753.8147

Presenter(s):

Aaron Jelcick, Police Chief

Paul Evers, Sergeant

Matt Renschler, Sergeant

Background and Analysis:

At the June 16, 2020 City Council meeting a referral was put forward to hold a Study Session to discuss the City's approach to crowd control. OPD staff will provide an overview of the approach and current practices related to the Department's Crowd Control and Use of Force policies. This will be an opportunity for the City Council and staff to ask questions, share information and discuss potential changes to policy.
