Chair Grisham asked for a motion to approve the minutes. Vice-Chair Dobler moved to approve the minutes, seconded by Commissioner Fairbanks.

The minutes were approved.

4. PUBLIC COMMENT

5. ANNOUNCEMENTS

Commissioners shared information about past and upcoming arts events.

6. BUSINESS ITEMS

19-0787 Airbound Arts Meet & Greet

Rumi Minowa, board member of Airbound Arts, shared information about their circus and aerial training studio, located between Rhythm & Rye and the Oly Taproom. Their organization has been together for a few years, teaching classes, workshops, and hosting a second Saturday variety show. They are working up to hiring a paid staff member, and are interested in building community awareness of their programs.

The information was provided.

19-0786 City Hall Exhibitions

Ms. Johnson shared the recommendation of the jury committee, composed of Commissioner Dorgan, and City staff Pam Fant and Amber Coleman. The recommendation was to offer the November 2019-April 2020 exhibition to Charles Eklund, and the May-October 2020 exhibition to Roberta Dougherty and Jennifer Allen (of Senior Services for South Sound). Because the works proposed for the second exhibition are not enough to fill the space, Ms. Johnson will offer the opportunity for either party to add works to fill the space. If neither are able to do so, Ms. Johnson will offer the extra space to another artist/organization. Commissioners also discussed ways to promote the opportunity or change the application, to encourage more applicants.

Commissioner McManus moved to approve the recommendation of the jury, seconded by Commissioner Fairbanks.

Arts Commissioners approved the recommendation of the jury for two exhibitions of artwork in City Hall over the next twelve months.

19-0802 Approval of changes to the Grants to Arts Organizations (GAO) application

Attachments: Current GAO Application

Ms. Johnson shared proposed changes to the Grants to Arts Organizations application, designed to help make the opportunity more available to cultural organizations in the community. The greatest change would be in the title: Grants to Arts & Culture Organizations. Commissioners reviewed each proposed change, and made edits and recommendations.

Commissioner Dorgan moved to approve the changes, seconded by Commissioner Hicks.

Arts Commissioners approved changes to the GAO application to make the opportunity more available to cultural communities.

19-0792 Plan for October Arts Commission retreat

Commissioners discussed possible agenda items for the October 10 retreat, to be finalized by Chair Grisham and Vice-Chair Dobler at their October agenda-setting meeting:

- Discuss 2020 Chair and Vice-Chair appointments
- Discuss 2020 Work Plan
- Receive selected grant recipient reports. Ms. Johnson to invite Animal Fire Theater, Hummingbird Studio and the Olympia Artspace Alliance.
- Discuss Arts Walk and Third Thursdays
- Discuss ArCH to date
- Creative District update with Marygrace
- Poet Laureate update

Arts Commissioners planned the retreat agenda.

7. REPORTS

19-0788 Policy and Program Recommendations to City Council

The Artist-in-Residence Work Group - Commissioners Dorgan, Murray and Williams, shared their considerations from their 5pm meeting:

- They are interested in exploring an artist-in-residence program that works with at-risk citizens.
- The intent would be to use art as a healing component to support a full life for all citizens.
- Artists of all disciplines would be invited to propose a program for at-risk citizens, and would be provided a list of pre-approved locations.
- Commissioners requested Colin DeForrest, the City's Homeless Response Coordinator, to attend the November Arts Commission meeting.
- Commissioners will research similar programs for their next meeting.

Information only. No action requested.

19-0789 Arts Program Support

Ms. Johnson shared that reinstallation of "The Call of Duty" has been delayed due to the discovery of rebar as internal armature within the sculpture. Concerns about future corrosion of mild steel and aluminum require the removal of the rebar before reinstallation.

She also shared that the traffic wrap fabricator is now under contract and installation should happen within the next few months.

Finally, Ms. Johnson noted that she attended summer picnics for the Eastside and Indian Creek Neighborhood Associations, to gather input for the Eastside St. Art Crossing Call for Art, and that she had provided a project update to the Coalition of Neighborhood Associations on September 9.

Information only. No action requested.

19-0791 2019 ArCH Support
