

Address	Date Built	Contributing/ Non-Contributing	Style	Parcel #	Architect/Builder	Original or Early Owner Owner (OR) (with date)
2405 S. Columbia	1936	Contributing	English Revival	38500600100		Walter Groshong, Court Reporter (OR)
	Large, two-story English Revival style house with jerkin head gables. Cross gabled with shingle cladding and multipane leaded glass windows. Front has diamond panes over the entry in a paneled section. Entry is offset on front (north) facade.
2412 S. Columbia	1924	Contributing	Dutch Colonial	38500702700	TLM	Carlton Sears, Drug Store Owner (OR)
	Large, two-story Dutch Colonial style house with full width front and rear dormers. Shingle cladding. North end has flat roof extension with a solarium on the first floor and newer enclosed sleeping porch on the second. Front entry projects from the center of the house with a large pedimented gable supported by decorative consoles. Paneled doors with side lights. Windows are paired, single and triple three-over-one vertically segmented sash.
2415 S. Columbia	1926	Contributing	Mission Revival	38500600200		John Chandler, Clerk State Treasurer (1932)
	One-story, irregularly shaped, cross-gable Mission Revival style house. Front gabled section has recessed arches to form entry. Multipane long casement tripartite window has low wrought iron railing. Other windows are multipane casement. Stucco exterior.
2416 S. Columbia	1926	Contributing	Craftsman/Bungalow	38500702600		Mrs. Florence Brewer, Teacher (1932)
	Front-gabled, Craftsman/Bungalow style house with shingle cladding. Gable roof porch is supported by shingled posts with low railing on the left side. Central front brick chimney. Vertically segmented three-over-one paired and single sash.
2417 S. Columbia	1926	Contributing	Craftsman/Bungalow	38500600300	TLM	Wedworth Down, Chief Clerk, State Dept. of Public Works (1932)
	Side-gable, one-story, rectangular house with rear projection. Projecting center front gabled porch has arched ceiling and is supported by paired Tuscan pillars. Center front entry is multipane glass with glass sidelights. Entry is flanked by tripartite windows with multipane top sections. Wide eaves have exposed rafter ends. Clapboard cladding.
2420 S. Columbia	1925	Non-Contributing	Altered Craftsman/Bungalow	38500702500		Don Courser, Bookkeeper (1932)
	Non-contributing altered Craftsman/Bungalow style house.
2422 S. Columbia	1925	Non-Contributing	Altered Mission Revival	38500702300		Walter Sherman (1932)
	Non-contributing altered Mission Revival style house.
2423 S. Columbia	1937	Contributing	Colonial Revival	38500600500		Russell & Catherine Bordeaux, President/Manager Hyak Lumber Co. (OR)
	Large, side-gable, one-and-one-half-story house has some Art Moderne detailing including glass block adjoining front entry, horizontally segmented windows and round window adjoining front entry. Gabled dormer on north end has octagonal vent. Shingle cladding.
2430 S. Columbia	1925	Contributing	Mission Revival	38500702200		Ernest Mallory (1932)
	Elongated, one-story, Mission Revival style house with newer gabled side gable roofline. Left side of front has gabled projection with side entry. Windows are single, triple and four long casement windows with vertical mullions. Entry window has arched center section. South end extends to form arched side entry. Textured stucco cladding.					