

The Olympia Transit Center South Site Improvements project will provide more pedestrian amenities, improve circulation access to bus loading and provide better visibility for security cameras already in place for the safety of all citizens.