The minutes were approved.

4. PUBLIC COMMENT

Jason Gano with Olympia Master Builders introduced himself but did not provide public comment.

5. ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM UAC AND STAFF

Chair Stephenson asked whether it is a Committee or City decision to resume meeting in-person, now that more people are getting the Covid-19 vaccination. Mr. Christensen responded it is a City management decision and he will keep the UAC informed of any decision to allow committees to meet in-person again safely.

Mr. Christensen provided the following announcements:

Former Chair Buffo presented the UAC 2021-2022 workplan to the General Government Committee (GGC) on March 24. The workplan was accepted and the GGC acknowledged the great work by the UAC.

The latest federal stimulus bill provided half a billion in relief money for low income citizens that are in arrears with utility payments. City staff are researching how the funds are being allocated and how to inform customers of their availability.

Stipend payments for advisory committee member meeting attendance begins today, April 1. UAC members will receive an email with forms that need to be completed and emailed back to staff by June 1.

The City received two applications for the UAC vacancy. UAC Chair and Vice Chair are reviewing the applications. The GGC will interview applicants on April 24.

Update on the reservoir seismic upgrade projects.
