Background and Analysis:

The General Government Committee interviewed Rose Emerson at its February 18, special meeting and recommend her appointments to fill a vacancy on the Arts Commission with terms ending March 31, 2023. The Chair of the Arts Commission, Timothy Grisham, joined the General Government Committee for the interview.

The candidate's application and resume are attached.

Neighborhood/Community Interests (if known):

N/A

Options:

1. Approve the appointments as recommended.

2. Do not approve the appointments and send the issue back to the General Government Committee. This would delay the appointment schedule and leave the Committee not operating at full strength.

Financial Impact:

None
