Background and Analysis:
On May 5, 2020, the jury committee for the Eastside St. Art Crossing project reviewed the 9 applications received, and narrowed the list down to three candidates. Interviews would happen on May 27, 2020. Final recommendation will be made to the Arts Commission at their June 11 meeting. On June 23, the Arts Commission will make their recommendation to the City Council.

Neighborhood/Community Interests (if known):
Neighborhood representation was built into the jury committee:

Bob Droll, Landscape Architect

Stacy Hicks, Arts Commissioner

Dave Opincarne, Indian Creek Neighborhood Representative

Aaron Sauerhoff, Planning Commissioner

Jim Sweeny, Eastside Neighborhood Representative

Options:
1. Approve the recommendation of the three short listed candidates for interview by the jury committee.
2. Do not approve the recommendation of the three short listed candidates for interview by the jury committee.
3. Make an alternate recommendation.

Financial Impact:
$50,000 has been approved for the artist contract, from the Municipal Art Plan.
