Agenda Item:

Oral Report - Briefing and Discussion about Proactive Development Review Process

Issue:

How do we change from a reactive to a proactive development system as a community and an organization?

Presenter(s):

Steve Hall, City Manager, 360.753.8447

Background and Analysis:

A top Council priority this year is changing the culture of community development. A copy of the Council's retreat discussion on this topic is attached.

City Manager Hall will outline, from his perspective, the opportunities and challenges, and some initial process ideas.
