Title

2015 Historic Preservation Award Nomination

Recommended Action

Move to nominate one or more applicants for City of Olympia's 2015 Historic Preservation Award

Report

Issue:

The Heritage Commission will review three nomination applications for this year's Historic Preservation Award and decide whether to recommend any applicants for the award.

Presenter(s):

Michelle Sadlier, Historic Preservation Officer, Community Planning & Development, 360.753.8031

Background and Analysis:

The Heritage Commission has received three nominations for the 2015 Historic Preservation Award:

1. Judy Bardin - For voluntary commitment to serve as liaison between the Olympia Planning Commission and Olympia Heritage Commission (Attachment 1);
2. Lauren Danner - For research and scholarship in preparing a submission to the National Register of Historic Places and taking initiative to identify and preserve a mid-century modern home of both architectural and historic significance to Olympia (Attachment 2); and
3. Wildwood Center Building and Business Owners - For preserving and reinvigorating a historic commercial property as a vital community center (Attachment 3).

Following tonight's decision on a recommendation, the award(s) will be prepared and presented at
