Background and Analysis:

The General Government Committee is responsible for advisory committee recruitment. The recruitment process for 2020 began on Oct. 1, 2019 and ran through Dec. 15, 2019.

At the close of the recruitment period, the City received approximately 60 applications for 17 vacancies across seven Council appointed advisory boards and commissions.

Advisory Committees with open seats are currently reviewing their respective applications and will screen suggested candidates for the General Government Committee to consider for interviews.
