Background and Analysis:

Annual work plans are reviewed by City Council in the first quarter of each year. Additionally, the Arts Commission submits the Municipal Art Plan at the same time.

Climate Analysis:

Public art projects in the urban landscape can encourage a more walkable community.

Equity Analysis:

In 2023 staff will be collecting demographic information to better understand who benefits and who is burdened by City arts programs for future planning efforts.

Neighborhood/Community Interests (if known):

N/A

Options:

1. Discuss and edit the 2023-2024 Work Plan, for an updated version to return to the Commission in February.

2. Approve the draft 2023-2024 Work Plan for presentation to City Council.

Financial Impact:

The Municipal Art Plan proposes funding for public art.
