Background and Analysis:

The Arts, Cultures, and Heritage (ArCH) study is still underway. Following a program of public outreach, the consultant team has completed a first draft of the two report components (Attachments 1 & 2). Tonight, the Heritage Commission will provide feedback on these drafts.

To focus Commissioners' review, staff suggests considering the following questions:

1. What excites you and/or what do you like about the recommendations and/or the report?
2. What, if anything need further clarification? Are there any missed connections?
3. Are there any fatal flaws or missing information?
4. Do you have other recommendations or suggestions?

Assistant City Manager Jay Burney will be on hand to discuss Commissioners' feedback.
